

Do not distribute these certificates for The Racing Store unless you read and understand this notice. To all purchasers of The Racing Store certificates;

The Federal Trade Commission prohibits the making of any offer that misleads or may possibly mislead a consumer. In order to comply with the FTC rules, any advertising describing The Racing Store certificate must disclose that the consumer will be responsible for paying the shipping, handling and processing fees associated with receiving the merchandise. The merchandise is never to be referred to as being free.

The Racing Store Certificate holder is entitled to $250.00 worth of official licensed merchandise from The Racing Store's online catalog without any product charges. The certificate holder is responsible for all shipping and handling fees and a once per order $5.00 processing fee. Fees can be paid by Visa, MC, Amex or Discover. If the certificates holder cannot get online or does not have a credit card they may order a printed catalog and order through the mail & pay by money order only. To order a printed catalog certificate holder can send a check or money order for $3.50 to: Select Your Gifts, PO Box 10672, Riviera Beach, FL 33419-0672.

If you disburse these certificates without describing the limitations, or if you disburse these certificates to a retailer who fails to disclose the limitations as described above, you may be in violation of the federal law and/or applicable state statutes. Failure to comply with the above disclosure requirements constitutes grounds for Selectyourgifts.com to cancel any contracts or agreements with you for the shipment of future certificates.

Void where prohibited by law.

*Note we have recorded the serial numbers for these certificates. Any certificates that have not been paid for will not be honored.